Four Weeks Epidemic Which Claimed Four Lives Is Now Under Control in Las Cruces. Public Lands Taken Up.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO THE HERALD

Las Cruces, N. M., June 3.—The town of Las Cruces has been declared free from scarlet fever. The disease had been in force four weeks and the epidemic caused four deaths. Ten others were ill, some severely and others mildly.

There are several million acres of public lands left blank in this district since January 1, 1911. Applications for desert lands and homesteads extend to about 15,000 acres every week. Seventy-five per cent of this land lies in Luna county near Deming where the "landers" have their mouths to the magazine and are long until all this land is taken.

Miss Florence French left Thursday for Long Beach, Calif., where she will spend her summer vacation.

Office Keenan of Columbus has filed desert land application for the southwest quarter of section 19, township 28, range 7, west area 160 acres.

As J. Farland of Rodes has made unexecuted application for the northwest quarter of section 8, township 28, range 21, west area 160 acres.

A. Hammer is building a modern house on Broadway avenue.

The Town for the foundation on the maximum building of the sale has been completed and ready for raising. The contract called for a complete building by August 21.

On Friday morning Rev. Law, the evangelist, will speak at Christian Tabernacle on Broadwater avenue.

He promises to provide for the poor. As these funds are only in amounts where there are no running expenses, the only method to get a good deal of money is to give.

Thousands of houses are being constructed in this country by the advertising system.

It is possible for every man desirous of owning his own home, to own a small section of land at a cost of about $1000 to $11,000. All the United States government asks is that the applicant do something with the land, to improve and cultivate it. Thousands and thousands of homeowners are moving into New Mexico annually and taking advantage of their wonderful opportunities. Surely it is a chance of a lifetime.
